Dear Safe Environment Training Applicant:

Thank you for your inquiry regarding applying to become a trainer for Safe Environment Trainer with the Catholic Diocese of Phoenix. No particular educational background is needed to be a Safe Environment Trainer using the Called to Protect™ videos. Successful trainers may be clergy, religious, employees or volunteers, but they all share a commitment to sexual abuse prevention.

Qualities of a Successful Safe Environment Trainer:

- Comfortable speaking in front of large crowds
- Level headed when under stress
- Emotionally and psychologically stable
- Compassionate towards others
- Reasonably objective about sexual abuse
- Comfortable with discussing sexual issues
- Able to make a time commitment
- Able to maintain confidentiality
- Motivated to participate in the program
- Willing to attend annual training updates

All trainers will participate in a 16 hour Train-the-Trainers program that will prepare them to lead a three-hour session in a parish, school, or social service organization.

Training dates and times are located on the Diocesan website at:
<http://www.diocesephoenix.org/youthProtection/trainingSchedule.htm>

If you feel that you meet the qualifications of a Safe Environment Trainer please fill out the attached application and return it to the Diocese Pastoral Center.
